Practical arrangements

- The working language is English (without translation).
- The first part of the meeting will last for 1.5 hours (12:00-13:30), after which all interested are invited to stay for the 30 minute video (until 14:00).
- This meeting is organised as a ‘brown bag lunch’ seminar; only drinks will be provided by the organisers.

Organisation

It is organised under the auspices of the Fund on Transitional Justice, an initiative of the Research Line on Human Rights and Transitional Justice at the Leuven Institute of Criminology and administered by the KU Leuven University Fund. Established in 2015 the Fund is encouraging and developing research and activities on transitional justice in post-conflict situations mostly in the Global South, with a long-term aim to promote sustainable peace and development. Particular attention is devoted to models of reparative justice and restorative justice that focus on harm reduction for victims and other stakeholders, as well as the (re-) construction of societies that are conflict-ridden.

Registration

Meeting free of charge but limited seating capacity available.

Please confirm your participation by Monday 25 January at the latest by sending an email to sonja.wellens@law.kuleuven.be (mentioning your name + first name and institutional affiliation).
