

CONTENTS

Preface	v
List of Abbreviations	xiii
List of Authors	xvii

Austria

Ulrike FRAUENBERGER-PFEILER	1
-----------------------------------	---

Baltic Countries

Vytautas NEKROŠIUS and Vigita VĒBRAITĒ	29
--	----

Belgium

Michael TRAEST	45
----------------------	----

Bulgaria

Nikolay NATOV, Boriana MUSSEVA, Vasil PANDOV, Teodora TSENOVA and Stanislav YORDANSKY	69
--	----

Cyprus

Achilles C. EMILIANIDES and Xenis XENOFONTOS	87
--	----

Czech Republic

Monika PAUKNEROVÁ, Jan BRODEC and Magdalena PFEIFFER	97
--	----

France

Emmanuel GUINCHARD and Magali BOUCARON-NARDETTO	131
---	-----

Germany

Ivo BACH and Urs PETER GRUBER	159
-------------------------------------	-----

Greece

Vassilios KOURTIS	193
-------------------------	-----

Hungary

Miklós KENGYEL, Viktória HARSÁGI and Zoltán NEMESSÁNYI	217
--	-----

Ireland
William AYLMER	239
Italy
Ilaria QUEIROLO, Laura CARPANETO and Stefano DOMINELLI	251
Malta
Tanya SCIBERRAS CAMILLERI	283
Poland
Katarzyna GRZYBCZYK and Grzegorz FRĄCZEK	299
Portugal
Afonso PATRÃO	327
Romania
Ramona GRATIELA MILU and Mihai TAUS	351
Scandinavian Countries
Laura ERVO and Liisa SIPPEL	371
Slovakia
František KUTLÍK	427
Spain
José Luis IGLESIAS BUHIGUES, Carlos ESPLUGUES MOTA, Guillermo PALAO MORENO, Rosario ESPINOSA CALABUIG, and Carmen AZCÁRRAGA MONZONÍS	445
The Netherlands
Aukje VAN HOEK and Joris KOCKEN	491
United Kingdom
Elizabeth B. CRAWFORD and Janeen M. CARRUTHERS	515

AUSTRIA

Ulrike FRAUENBERGER-PFEILER

Summary

1.	Introduction	3
1.1.	The concept of mediation	3
1.1.1.	Mediation in Austria – Freelance work	3
1.1.2.	Short historical background	4
1.1.3.	Other ADR devices used in Austria and their relationship with mediation	4
1.2.	Existing legal bases for mediation in Austria	5
1.2.1.	Mediation and constitutional procedural rights	5
1.2.2.	Specific regulation regarding mediation and areas of law covered by it	5
1.2.2.1.	National mediation	5
1.2.2.2.	EU cross-border mediation	6
1.2.2.3.	International – in the sense of outside EU – mediation	6
1.2.3.	Current situation as regards the implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC	7
2.	Out-of-court mediation	7
2.1.	Domestic and international mediation	7
2.1.1.	Dual approach of mediation (domestic and international)	7
2.1.2.	Grounds for distinguishing between domestic and transnational mediation	8
2.1.3.	Difference between EU mediation in cross-border cases and fully international mediation	8
2.2.	Areas and meaning of mediation	8
2.2.1.	Specific areas of law and/or issues, in which mediation is available	8
2.2.2.	Differences between availability and usage	9
2.3.	The mediation contract/clause	10
2.3.1.	The form of the contract/clause	10
2.3.1.1.	Principles and legal basis	10
2.3.1.2.	Mandatory limits	11

2.3.2.	Content of the contract/clause	11
2.3.3.	Law applicable to the contract/clause in case of international mediation	11
2.3.4.	Effects of the mediation contract/clause.	11
2.3.4.1.	Upon the parties.	11
2.3.4.2.	Upon the mediator/s	12
2.3.4.3.	Upon the national courts	13
2.3.5.	Consequences arising out of the breach of the mediation contract/clause	14
2.3.5.1.	For the parties.	14
2.3.5.2.	Upon the mediator/s	15
2.4.	Selection of the mediator	16
2.4.1.	Who may be a mediator?.	16
2.4.1.1.	Legal requirements.	16
2.4.1.2.	Personal requirements.	17
2.4.2.	Resignation of the mediator	17
2.4.3.	Challenge of the mediator by the party/ies: grounds and consequences.	18
2.4.4.	Code of conduct for mediators.	18
2.5.	The procedure of mediation	18
2.5.1.	Legal principles regarding the procedure of mediation.	18
2.5.2.	Legal limits regarding the procedure of mediation	19
2.5.3.	The role played by the mediator during the procedure of mediation.	19
2.5.4.	Venue	19
2.5.5.	Duration and time limits	19
2.6.	Relationship between the mediator and the parties, prior, during and after the mediation takes place	20
2.6.1.	Legal condition of the existing relationship between the mediator and the parties.	20
2.6.2.	Confidentiality of the mediator and the parties	20
2.7.	'Failure' of mediation	22
2.7.1.	Consequences for the parties	22
2.7.2.	Consequences for the mediator	23
2.7.3.	Consequences for future pleadings before courts/ arbitration tribunals	23
2.8.	'Success' of the mediation procedure	23
2.8.1.	Formal requirements of the accord reached	23
2.8.2.	Effects/preclusive effects of the agreement/settlement reached by the parties	24
2.8.3.	Enforceability of the agreement/settlement reached by the parties	24

BALTIC COUNTRIES

Vytautas NEKROŠIUS and Vigita VĖBRAITĖ

Summary

1.	Conception of mediation in Baltic countries.....	29
2.	Out-of-court mediation.....	32
2.1.	Agreement for out-of-court mediation.....	32
2.2.	Requirements for mediators.....	34
2.3.	Procedure of out-of-court mediation.....	36
3.	Court-annexed mediation.....	39
3.1.	Legal basis and nature of court-annexed mediation.....	39
3.2.	Procedure of court-annexed mediation.....	40
4.	Future perspectives of mediation in Baltic countries.....	42

BELGIUM

Michael TRAEST

Summary

1.	The concept of mediation in Belgium	46
1.1.	Introduction	46
1.2.	Basic legal provisions concerning mediation and the EC Directive	50
2.	Out-of-court mediation.	55
2.1.	Introduction	55
2.2.	The mediation protocol.	55
2.3.	The mediator: requirements, honorarium and conflict of interests check	57
2.4.	The relation between the mediator and the parties and the obligation of confidentiality.	59
2.5.	The procedure of mediation.	61
2.6.	The mediator and judicial and non-judicial authorities	61
2.7.	Failure of mediation	61
2.8.	Success of mediation	61
2.9.	Costs and legal aid.	63
3.	Court-annexed mediation.	64
3.1.	Legal basis and areas of law covered.	64
3.2.	The order referring to mediation.	64
3.3.	The mediation itself, its success or (partial) failure	66
3.4.	Costs and legal aid.	67
4.	Conclusion.	67

BULGARIA

Nikolay NATOV, Boriana MUSSEVA, Vasil PANDOV,
Teodora TSENOVA and Stanislav YORDANSKY

Summary

1.	Overview	69
1.1.	Concept of mediation	70
1.2.	Benefits of mediation.....	70
1.3.	Domestic and cross-border mediation.....	71
2.	Governing rules and scope of mediation	71
2.1.	Legal basis.....	71
2.2.	Scope of application.....	72
3.	Out-of-court mediation.....	75
3.1.	The mediation agreement.....	75
3.2.	Selection of the mediator	78
3.3.	The procedure of mediation.....	80
3.4.	Mediation and public authorities	82
3.5.	Failure and success of mediation.....	83
4.	Court-annexed mediation.....	83
5.	Enforcement of foreign mediation agreements.....	84
6.	Conclusion.....	86

CYPRUS

Achilles C. EMILIANIDES and Xenis XENOFONTOS

Summary

1. Introduction	87
2. The structure of mediation	88
3. Mediation in family law	90
4. Mediation in labour law disputes	92
5. Future prospects	95

CZECH REPUBLIC

Monika PAUKNEROVÁ, Jan BRODEC and Magdalena PFEIFFER*

Summary

1.	Concept, origin, evolution and current situation in mediation in civil and commercial matters in the Czech Republic.	99
1.1.	The concept of mediation: doctrinal and legal approaches.	99
1.2.	Other ADR devices existing in the Czech Republic and their relationship with mediation.	102
2.	Existing legal bases for mediation in the Czech Republic	103
2.1.	Mediation and constitutional procedural rights.	103
2.2.	Specific regulation on mediation.	104
2.2.1.	Domestic mediation.	104
2.2.2.	EU cross-border mediation	106
2.2.3.	International mediation – outside the EU	107
2.3.	Domestic and international mediation	108
2.4.	Specific areas of law, in which mediation is available	108
3.	Out-of-court mediation.	109
3.1.	The mediation agreement.	109
3.1.1.	The form of the agreement	109
3.1.2.	Content of the agreement	109
3.1.3.	Effects of the mediation agreement.	110
3.2.	The mediator.	111
3.2.1.	Legal requirements.	111
3.2.2.	Personal requirements.	112
3.2.3.	Selection of the mediator	113
3.2.4.	Conflict of interest check	113
3.2.5.	Role played by the institutions of mediation as to the appointment of mediators.	113
3.2.6.	Fees.	114
3.2.7.	Resignation of the mediator	114

* Part 1 and 2 and Bibliography: Monika PAUKNEROVÁ; Part 3: Jan BRODEC; Part 4 and 5: Magdalena PFEIFFER.

3.2.8.	Challenge of the mediator by the party/ies: grounds and consequences.	115
3.2.9.	Existence of any 'Code of Conduct for Mediators'	115
3.3.	The procedure of mediation	115
3.3.1.	Basic principles	115
3.3.2.	General basis of the procedure of mediation: the role played by the mediator during the procedure of mediation.	116
3.3.3.	Venue	117
3.3.4.	Duration and time limits	117
3.4.	Relationship between the mediator and the parties, prior, during and after mediation takes place	117
3.4.1.	Legal conditions of the existing relationship between the mediator and the parties	117
3.4.2.	Confidentiality of the mediator and the parties	117
3.4.3.	Responsibility of the mediator, the parties and the prospective mediation institution	118
3.5.	Mediation and public authorities	118
3.5.1.	Relationship between the mediation procedure and national courts	118
3.5.2.	Relationship between the mediation procedure and other public authorities	118
3.6.	Failure of mediation	119
3.6.1.	Meaning.	119
3.6.2.	Consequences	120
3.6.2.1.	For the parties.	120
3.6.2.2.	For the mediator.	120
3.6.2.3.	For future pleadings before courts/arbitration tribunals.	120
3.7.	Success of the mediation procedure	121
3.7.1.	Mediation accord	121
3.7.2.	Formal requirements of the mediation accord	121
3.7.3.	Effects/preclusive effects of the mediation accord reached by the parties	121
3.7.4.	Enforceability of the mediation accord reached by the parties	121
3.8.	Costs of the mediation procedure	122
3.8.1.	Costs.	122
3.8.2.	Availability of legal aid	122
4.	Court-annexed mediation	123
4.1.	Legal bases and areas of law covered	123
4.1.1.	Before the adoption of the Mediation Act	123

4.1.2.	De lege lata	123
4.2.	Order referring to mediation, appointment of the mediator, venue	124
4.2.1.	Role of courts/judges	124
4.2.2.	Role of lawyers	124
4.2.3.	Incentives, exemptions and sanctions.	124
4.2.4.	Appointment of mediator	124
4.2.5.	Venue	125
4.3.	Basis and organisation of the mediation procedure	125
4.4.	Procedure of mediation, the mediator and judicial and non- judicial authorities	125
4.4.1.	Procedure of mediation.	125
4.4.2.	Mediator	125
4.4.3.	Judicial and non-judicial authorities.	126
4.5.	The failure of mediation: meaning and consequences.	126
4.6.	The success of mediation: the mediation accord, formal requirements, effects, enforceability	126
4.6.1.	Formal requirements	127
4.6.2.	Effects.	127
4.6.3.	Enforceability	127
4.7.	Mediation: costs, availability of legal aid	128
4.7.1.	Costs.	128
4.7.2.	Availability of legal aid	129
5.	Future perspectives	129

FRANCE

Emmanuel GUINCHARD and Magali BOUCARON-NARDETTO

Summary

1.	Concept, origin, evolution, current situation and future trends of mediation in civil and commercial matters in France	132
1.1.	Concept, origin, evolution	132
1.2.	Current situation and future trends	134
2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters in France: the implementation of Directive 2008/52.	141
2.1.	Implementation of Directive 2008/52 (overview)	141
2.2.	Implementation of Directive 2008/52 (specific features)	143
2.2.1.	The European concept of civil and commercial matters: consequences on the French dual court system	143
2.2.2.	A unified set of rules for domestic and cross-border mediation in private matters	146
3.	Out-of-court mediation.	146
3.1.	The quality of out-of-court mediation	148
3.2.	The confidentiality of out-of-court mediation	150
3.3.	The enforceability of the agreement reached by the parties following the out-of-court mediation.	152
4.	Court-annexed mediation.	153
4.1.	General provisions.	153
4.2.	Specific provisions	153
5.	Future perspectives	157

GERMANY

Ivo BACH and Urs Peter GRUBER*

Summary

1.	Current situation and actual trends of mediation.	160
1.1.	Traditional court practice.	160
1.2.	Trend towards mediation	161
1.3.	Overview of applicable rules	162
1.3.1.	Mediation not connected with a court proceeding	162
1.3.2.	Mediation connected with a court proceeding.	163
1.3.2.1.	Mandatory pre-trial mediation	163
1.3.2.2.	Mediation by a person other than the judge deciding the case in ongoing court proceedings.	164
2.	Out-of-court mediation.	164
2.1.	The agreement to mediate.	164
2.1.1.	Formation	164
2.1.2.	Effects.	165
2.1.2.1.	Upon the parties.	165
2.1.2.2.	Upon the mediator's and the mediation organisation	166
2.1.2.3.	Upon the national courts	166
2.1.3.	Law applicable to the agreement in cases involving international (both EU and outside EU) mediation.	167
2.2.	The mediator.	168
2.2.1.	Who may serve as mediator?	168
2.2.2.	Conflicts of interests	169
2.3.	Mediation procedure. Special emphasis on confidentiality	169
2.4.	The mediator's relationship with judicial and non-judicial authorities	171
2.5.	The failure of mediation: meaning and consequences, prescription.	171

* The authors would like to thank Daniel Felz, currently a lecturer at the University of Mainz, for revising the text.

2.5.1.	Meaning and consequences	171
2.5.2.	Prescription	171
2.6.	Successful mediation: the mediation settlement.	172
2.6.1.	Formal requirements	172
2.6.2.	Effects.	172
2.6.3.	Enforceability	173
2.7.	Fees and legal aid	174
2.7.1.	Fees	174
2.7.2.	Availability of legal aid	174
3.	Court-annexed mediation.	175
3.1.	Mandatory pre-trial mediation	175
3.1.1.	Participating states.	175
3.1.2.	Types of disputes subject to mandatory mediation	175
3.1.3.	Constitutional issues	178
3.1.4.	Mediation procedure; who may serve as mediator?	178
3.1.5.	Effects of successful mediation; failure of mediation; limitation period	179
3.1.6.	Costs.	180
3.1.7.	Empirical studies; assessment of mandatory pre-trial mediation.	180
3.2.	Mediation by a conciliation judge.	181
3.2.1.	Former situation.	181
3.2.1.1.	Procedure	181
3.2.1.2.	Costs.	182
3.2.2.	The new law on mediation	182
3.2.2.1.	Procedure	182
3.2.2.2.	Costs.	183
3.3.	Court-suggested external mediation	183
3.3.1.	Procedure.	183
3.3.2.	Costs.	184
4.	Future perspectives of development	185
	Annex I. Text of the Mediation Act	186
	Annex II. Other provisions relevant to mediation.	189

GREECE

Vassilios KOURTIS
with the collaboration of Elpida Sivena

Summary

1.	Introduction	194
1.1.	Concept	194
1.2.	Origin and evolution	196
1.3.	Current situation and future trends of mediation	198
1.4.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters	199
1.4.1.	Rules of general application	199
1.4.2.	Rules of special application	200
2.	Out-of-court mediation	202
2.1.	The agreement to mediate	202
2.1.1.	Form	203
2.1.2.	Content	203
2.1.3.	Effects	204
2.2.	The mediator	205
2.2.1.	Definition	205
2.2.2.	Appointment	205
2.2.3.	Training	206
2.3.	Procedure of mediation	208
2.3.1.	Basic principles	208
2.3.2.	Venue	210
2.3.3.	Time limits	210
2.4.	The failure of mediation: meaning and consequences	211
2.5.	The success of mediation: the mediation agreement: formal requirements, effects, enforceability	212
2.6.	Mediation: costs, availability of legal aid	213
3.	Court-annexed mediation	213
3.1.	Legal basis and areas of law covered	213
3.2.	Order referring to mediation, appointment of the mediator	214
3.3.	Basis and organisation of the mediation procedure	214

3.4.	The failure of mediation: meaning and consequences.	215
3.5.	The success of mediation: the mediation agreement, formal requirements, effects, enforceability.	215
4.	Future perspectives of development	215

HUNGARY

Miklós KENGYEL, Viktória HARSÁGI and Zoltán NEMESSÁNYI

Summary

1.	Concept of mediation in Hungary.....	217
2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation.....	218
2.1.	Labour law.....	218
2.2.	Family law.....	219
2.3.	Consumer law.....	220
2.4.	Other sources of mediation.....	220
2.5.	The Hungarian Mediation Act of 2002.....	221
2.6.	Cross-border mediation and the Mediation Directive of the EU..	223
3.	Out-of-court mediation.....	224
3.1.	The agreement to mediate.....	224
3.2.	Who may be a mediator?.....	225
3.3.	The procedure of mediation.....	227
3.4.	The mediation agreement.....	231
3.5.	Costs of the mediation procedure and legal aid.....	234
4.	Court-annexed mediation.....	234
4.1.	General.....	234
4.2.	Family law and labour law issues.....	237
4.3.	New framework of court-annexed mediation in Hungary.....	237

IRELAND

William AYLMER

Summary

1.	Introduction	239
1.1.	Concept and origin of mediation	241
1.2.	Evolution of mediation	242
2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation	244
2.1.	Governing rules	245
2.1.1.	Law of Contract	245
2.1.2.	Voluntariness	245
2.1.3.	Confidentiality	246
2.1.4.	Self-determination and enforceability	246
2.1.5.	Neutrality and impartiality	247
2.2.	Implementation of the EU mediation Directive 2008/52/EC	247
3.	The mediation process	248
3.1.	Agreement to mediate	248
3.2.	Mediation procedure	249
3.3.	Costs	249
4.	Future perspective	250

ITALY

Ilaria QUEIROLO, Laura CARPANETO and Stefano DOMINELLI

Summary

1.	Concept, origin, evolution and current situation of mediation in civil and commercial matters in Italy	252
2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters in Italy: the implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC	257
3.	Out-of-court mediation.	261
3.1.	Types of out-of-court mediation in the Italian system	261
3.2.	Actors of the mediation procedure.	262
3.3.	The relationship between the actors of the mediation procedure	266
3.4.	The specific discipline on mandatory mediation	268
4.	General rules on the mediation procedure.	270
4.1.	The filing of the petition for mediation	271
4.2.	The selection of the mediator, auxiliaries and experts.	272
4.3.	The mediation procedure: length, duties of the mediator and confidentiality.	273
4.4.	The end of the procedure: possible outcomes and judicial homologation	275
5.	Court-annexed mediation.	278
6.	Current situation and future perspectives of development of mediation in Italy	279

MALTA

Tanya SCIBERRAS CAMILLERI

Summary

1. Introduction	283
2. The Mediation Act	286
3. The Mediation Agreement	287
4. Civil proceedings	288
5. Malta Mediation Centre	289
6. Appointment of mediators	290
7. Duties of mediators	290
8. Confidentiality	292
9. Termination of mediation	292
10. Fees in respect of mediation	293
11. Mandatory mediation	294
12. Success of mediation and enforceability	296
13. Conclusion	297

POLAND

Katarzyna GRZYBCZYK and Grzegorz FRĄCZEK

Summary

1.	Introduction	300
1.1.	Mediation proceedings in the Polish legal system	300
1.2.	Sources of law	301
1.3.	Implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC	302
1.4.	Principles of mediation	303
1.4.1.	Voluntary character	304
1.4.2.	Principle of confidentiality	304
1.4.3.	Mediator's impartiality	306
1.4.4.	Mediator	307
2.	Mediation by agreement (out-of-court mediation)	307
2.1.	Mediation agreement	307
2.2.	Choice of mediator	308
2.3.	Course of mediation proceedings	309
2.4.	Relationship between courts and mediators	309
2.5.	Failure of mediation proceedings	310
2.6.	Settlement conclusion before the mediator	310
2.7.	Mediation costs	316
3.	Court-annexed mediation	317
3.1.	Sources of law	317
3.2.	Cases referred to mediation	317
3.3.	The course of mediation proceedings	318
3.4.	Mediation failure	320
3.5.	Conclusion of settlement before the mediator	320
3.6.	Costs of mediation proceedings	321
4.	Future perspectives	322

PORTUGAL

Afonso PATRÃO*

Summary

1.	Introduction	328
1.1.	Concept, origin, evolution and current situation of mediation in civil and commercial matters in Portugal.....	328
1.2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters in Portugal: the implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC	330
1.2.1.	Legal basis for mediation	330
1.2.2.	Public mediation services.....	331
1.2.2.1.	Public Mediation Services	331
1.2.2.2.	Julgados de Paz (Courts for the Peace).....	331
1.2.3.	Effects of mediation and compliance of Directive 2008/52/EC	332
1.2.4.	Areas of law and issues in which mediation is available ..	333
2.	Out-of-court mediation.....	335
2.1.	The agreement to mediate.....	335
2.1.1.	Form.....	335
2.1.2.	Content	335
2.1.3.	Effects.....	335
2.2.	The mediator: selection, traits, fees, challenge/resignation, conflict of interests/code of conduct, relation with other actors (mainly parties).....	337
2.2.1.	Selection.....	337
2.2.2.	Challenge and resignation; conflict of interests check. . . .	338
2.2.3.	Fees.....	339
2.2.4.	Code of Conduct	339
2.3.	Procedure of mediation: basic principles, venue, time limits.....	339
2.3.1.	Legal principles and the role of the mediator	339
2.3.2.	Venue	341
2.3.3.	Duration and time limits	341

* The English versions of Portuguese law and of Portuguese authors are unofficial translations.

2.4.	The mediator and judicial and non-judicial authorities	342
2.4.1.	Mediation and national courts.	342
2.4.2.	Mediation and non-judicial authorities	343
2.5.	The failure of mediation: meaning and consequences.	343
2.6.	Successful mediation and the mediation agreement: formal requirements, effects and enforceability	344
2.6.1.	Meaning and formal requirements	344
2.6.2.	Effects and enforceability of mediation settlements.	344
2.7.	Costs and availability of legal aid	346
3.	Court-annexed mediation.	347
3.1.	Legal basis and areas of law covered	347
3.2.	Appointment of the mediator and venue.	347
3.3.	Organisation of the mediation procedure	348
3.4.	Relations with judicial and non-judicial authorities	348
3.5.	The failure of mediation: meaning and consequences.	349
3.6.	The success of mediation: the mediation agreement, formal requirements, effects and enforceability	349
3.7.	Costs and availability of legal aid	350

ROMANIA

Ramona GRATIELA MILU and Mihai TAUS

Summary

1.	Introduction	352
1.1.	Mediation in Romania: concept, origin, evolution.	352
1.2.	Domestic legal sources and the implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC	354
1.2.1.	Romanian Constitution	354
1.2.2.	Romanian Law on Mediation – Law No. 192/2006 (as modified by Law No. 370/2009)	354
1.2.3.	Government Emergency Ordinance No. 51/2008 on public judicial assistance in civil matters	355
1.2.4.	The Romanian Civil Procedure Code as modified by Law No. 202/2010	356
1.2.5.	The Romanian Penal Procedure Code as modified by Law No. 202/2010	356
1.2.6.	The Superior Council of Magistracy Ruling No. 504/2011 which modifies the Interior Regulation Regarding the Activity of the Romanian Courts of Justice	356
1.2.7.	Current situation as for the implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC	356
2.	Out-of-court mediation	357
2.1.	The agreement to mediate: form, content, effects	357
2.1.1.	Form of the agreement, principles and legal basis	357
2.1.2.	Mandatory limits of the mediation contract	357
2.1.3.	Content of the mediation agreement	357
2.1.4.	Effects of the mediation agreement	358
2.1.5.	Effects of mediation on limitation and prescription periods	358
2.2.	The mediator	358
2.2.1.	Selection of mediators	358
2.2.2.	Appointment of the mediator	359
2.2.3.	Conflict of interest check	360

2.2.4.	Fees	360
2.2.5.	Resignation by the mediator.	360
2.2.6.	Challenge of the mediator by the party/parties: grounds and consequences	361
2.3.	Procedure of mediation.	362
2.3.1.	Basic principles of the procedure of mediation	362
2.3.2.	Venue	363
2.3.3.	Duration and time limits for the procedure of mediation.	363
2.3.4.	The mediator and the judicial authorities	363
2.3.5.	The mediator and non judicial authorities.	364
2.4.	Meaning of failure of mediation	364
2.4.1.	Unaccepted mediation.	364
2.4.2.	The conclusion of mediation by the mediator upon observation of the mediation failure.	364
2.4.3.	The conclusion of mediation by termination of the mediation contract by one of the parties	365
2.4.4.	Consequences of failure of mediation for the parties.	365
2.4.5.	Consequences of failure of mediation for the mediator.	366
2.5.	Meaning of succes of mediation	366
2.5.1.	Formal requirements of the settlement agreement reached by the parties	366
2.5.2.	Effects/preclusive effects of the settlement agreement reached by the parties	366
2.5.3.	Enforceability of the settlement agreement reached by the parties.	367
2.5.4.	Access to public registries.	367
2.5.5.	Costs of the mediation procedure	367
2.5.6.	Availability of legal aid	367
3.	Court-annexed mediation.	368
4.	Conclusions – Future perspectives of development	368

SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES*

Laura ERVO and Liisa SIPPET

Summary

1.	The background	373
1.1.	The origin	373
1.2.	The concept	375
1.3.	Evolution of mediation	376
1.3.1.	Finland	376
1.3.2.	Sweden	378
1.3.3.	Denmark	378
1.4.	Current situation and future trends	379
1.4.1.	Finland	379
1.4.2.	Sweden	382
1.4.3.	Denmark	382
2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters	383
2.1.	Finland	383
2.2.	Sweden and Denmark	384
3.	Out-of-court mediation	385
3.1.	Finland	385
3.1.1.	RIL Conciliation	385
3.1.1.1.	Procedure and termination of the conciliation	386
3.1.1.2.	Conciliation costs, duration and numbers	387
3.1.2.	Mediation delivered by the Finnish Bar Association	388
3.1.3.	Preconditions for the confirming of the enforceable settlement	391

* The chapter covers Scandinavian EU Member States which are Finland, Sweden and Denmark.

 The chapter is based on the national report, written for the EU-project 'Removing obstacles to access to Justice through mediation in Europe: ensuring enforcement and a smooth cooperation with judicial and non-judicial authorities' 2011- 2013. Liisa Sippel wrote the Finnish national report and made the basis for the whole report, when Laura Ervo added some special views covering Sweden and Denmark. When writing the current chapter, the distribution of the work has been similar.

3.2.	Out-of-court mediation in Sweden	393
3.2.1.	The agreement.	393
3.2.2.	The mediator and the mediation procedure	394
3.2.3.	The mediator and judicial and non-judicial authorities	395
3.2.4.	The failure and success of mediation	396
3.2.5.	Mediation costs.	396
3.3.	Denmark	397
3.3.1.	The agreement.	397
3.3.2.	The mediator and the mediation procedure	398
4.	Court-annexed mediation.	401
4.1.	Finland.	401
4.1.1.	From private mediation to public mediation.	401
4.1.2.	The origin and the targets of the legislation concerning court mediation	402
4.1.3.	The legal basis and areas of law covered.	403
4.1.4.	The procedure of court mediation.	405
4.1.5.	The nature of the mediation	406
4.1.6.	Empirical facts of court mediation	407
4.2.	Sweden.	409
4.2.1.	Legal basis	409
4.2.2.	Organisation of the mediation procedure	411
4.2.3.	The implementation of the Mediation Directive and its effects	412
4.3.	Denmark	414
4.3.1.	Legal basis	414
4.3.2.	Organisation of the mediation procedure	415
4.3.3.	The agreement.	416
5.	Future perspectives of development	417
5.1.	Finland.	417
5.2.	Sweden.	419
5.3.	Denmark.	423
5.4.	Summary.	425

SLOVAKIA

František KUTLÍK

Summary

1.	Introduction	427
2.	Slovak mediation in year seven: challenges and expectations.	428
2.1.	Current state	428
2.2.	Promotion of mediation	430
2.3.	The main amendment to the Mediation Act	431
2.4.	Recent amendments	432
2.5.	European Union Law and mediation	432
2.6.	Reflections on Mediation Act de lege ferenda	433
2.7.	Conclusion	434
3.	Establishment of mediation in Slovakia through particularities	435
3.1.	Point of view of the mediation community	435
3.1.1.	Conditions considered favourable for mediation in Slovakia	435
3.1.2.	Obstacles to mediation in Slovakia	435
3.2.	Mediation in the workplace	436
3.3.	Health services and mediation	437
3.4.	Slovakia and 'Peer Mediation'	438
3.5.	Mediation experience in the Slovak Television	439
4.	Possibilities of peace mediation in Slovakia	441
4.1.	From diplomacy to mediation	441
4.2.	Particularities of peace mediation	441
4.3.	Mediation success with scandinavian roots	442
4.4.	Norwegian model – the way forward for Slovakia?	443
5.	Conclusion	444

SPAIN*

José Luis IGLESIAS BUHIGUES, Carlos ESPLUGUES MOTA, Guillermo PALAO MORENO, Rosario ESPINOSA CALABUIG, and Carmen AZCÁRRAGA MONZONÍS

Summary

1. Origin, evolution and current situation of mediation – in civil and commercial matters – in Spain. 447
 - 1.1. Introduction 447
 - 1.2. Concept and classes of mediation in Spain: doctrinal and legal approaches 449
 - 1.2.1. Introduction: domestic and international civil and commercial mediation. 449
 - 1.2.2. Criminal mediation 451
 - 1.2.3. Labour mediation. 452
 - 1.2.4. Consumer mediation. 452
 - 1.2.5. Mediation in the autonomous regions (Comunidades Autónomas). 453
 - 1.3. Other ADR devices existing in Spain and their relationship with mediation 455
 - 1.3.1. Conciliation. 455
 - 1.3.2. Transaction 456
 - 1.3.3. Arbitration. 457
 - 1.3.4. Negotiation 458
 - 1.4. Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters in Spain: the implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC 458
 - 1.4.1. Mediation and constitutional procedural rights. 458
 - 1.4.2. Specific regulation regarding mediation in Spain 460

* This chapter is written under the auspices of the research projects MEC-DER2010-17126, 'La experiencia del arbitraje y la mediación en los sistemas anglosajones y asiáticos y su incorporación en el nuevo modelo de justicia española del Siglo XXI' and GV-PROMETEO/2010/095, 'Mediación y arbitraje: piezas esenciales en el modelo de justicia del Siglo XXI'.

2.	Out-of-court mediation in Spain	461
2.1.	‘Written agreement’ to submit disputes to mediation	461
2.1.1.	Form of the ‘written agreement’ to submit disputes to mediation.	462
2.1.2.	Content of the ‘written agreement’ to submit disputes to mediation	463
2.1.3.	Effects of the ‘written agreement’ to submit disputes to mediation.	463
2.1.4.	The ‘written agreement’ to submit disputes to mediation and future pleadings before national or arbitration courts	464
2.1.5.	Consequences arising out of the breach of the ‘written agreement’ to submit disputes to mediation	464
2.2.	Selection of the mediator	464
2.2.1.	Legal and personal requirements of the mediator	465
2.2.2.	Conflict of interest check	468
2.2.3.	Resignation of the mediator	469
2.2.4.	Role played by mediation institutions.	469
2.2.5.	Existence of a ‘Code of Conduct for Mediators’	471
2.3.	The legal relationship between the mediator and the parties.	471
2.4.	The procedure of mediation.	472
2.4.1.	Structure of the mediation procedure.	472
2.4.2.	Legal principles regarding the procedure of mediation.	474
2.4.3.	Venue	476
2.4.4.	Duration and time limits	477
2.5.	The failure of mediation	477
2.6.	The success of the mediation	478
2.6.1.	The mediation agreement	478
2.6.2.	Effects of the mediation agreement.	478
2.7.	Costs and availability of legal aid	480
3.	Court-annexed mediation.	481
3.1.	Legal basis and areas of law covered.	481
3.1.1.	State legislation.	482
3.1.2.	Autonomous Regions Acts	483
3.2.	The mediation procedure	483
3.3.	The agreement reached	484
4.	Mediation in particular fields.	485
4.1.	Mediation and complex litigation.	485
4.1.1.	Class-actions.	486
4.1.2.	Bankruptcy	486
4.1.3.	Financial services.	486
4.1.4.	Consumer protection.	486
4.1.5.	Others.	487

4.2. Publicity of the decision to submit certain disputes to mediation and/or of the agreement reached	488
4.3. Mediation and TIC's	488

THE NETHERLANDS

Aukje VAN HOEK and Joris KOCKEN

Summary

1.	Evolution, concept and current situation of mediation in civil and commercial matters in the Netherlands	492
1.1.	The development of mediation in the Netherlands	492
1.2.	The development of mediation by self-regulation	493
1.3.	Dominant concept of mediation in the Netherlands	494
1.4.	Current situation	494
2.	Governing rules and legal sources of mediation in civil and commercial matters in the Netherlands: the implementation/non-implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC.	495
2.1.	Access to court	496
2.2.	The legal basis of mediation	497
2.3.	The implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC.	498
3.	Out-of-court mediation.	502
3.1.	The agreement to mediate.	502
3.2.	The mediator.	503
3.3.	The mediation procedure	506
3.4.	The mediator and judicial and non-judicial authorities	506
3.5.	The failure of mediation	507
3.6.	Successful mediation: the mediation agreement	508
3.7.	The costs of mediation.	508
4.	Court-annexed mediation.	509
4.1.	Legal basis and areas of law covered.	509
4.2.	Order referring to mediation, appointment of the arbitrator, venue	511
4.3.	Basis and organisation of the mediation procedure.	511
4.4.	Procedure of mediation, the mediator and judicial and non-judicial authorities.	512
4.5.	The failure of court-annexed mediation.	512
4.6.	Successful court-annexed mediation	512
4.7.	The costs of court-annexed mediation	512
5.	Outlook	513

UNITED KINGDOM

Elizabeth B. CRAWFORD and Janeen M. CARRUTHERS

Summary

1.	Concept of mediation	515
1.1.	Scotland.....	517
1.2.	England	520
2.	Implementation of Directive 2008/52/EC in the UK	521
2.1.	Cross-Border Mediation (EU Directive) Regulations 2011.....	521
2.2.	Scope of application of Directive 2008/52/EC – ‘cross-border disputes’	522
2.3.	England: implementation of Cross-Border Mediation (EU Directive) Regulations 2011	523
2.4.	Scotland: implementation of Cross-Border Mediation (Scotland) Regulations 2011	526
3.	Out-of-court mediation.....	528
3.1.	The agreement to mediate.....	528
3.2.	The mediator.....	530
3.3.	Mediation procedure.....	531
4.	Court-annexed mediation.....	533
4.1.	Scotland.....	533
4.2.	England	535
4.3.	Costs and expenses of mediation	537
4.3.1.	Scotland.....	537
4.3.2.	England	538
5.	Future perspectives	539