Truth and Efficiency in Civil Litigation
Fundamental Aspects of Fact-finding and Evidence-taking in a Comparative Context
Editors:
C.H. van Rhee
A. Uzelac

Truth and Efficiency in Civil Litigation
Fundamental Aspects of Fact-finding and Evidence-taking in a Comparative Context
Editors:
C.H. van Rhee
A. Uzelac

Truth and Efficiency in Civil Litigation:
Fundamental Aspects of Fact-finding and Evidence-taking in a
Comparative Context

This book was published with the financial support of the Royal Netherlands
Embassy, Zagreb, Croatia.

Intersentia Ltd
Trinity House | Cambridge Business Park | Cowley Road
Cambridge | CB4 0WZ | United Kingdom
Tel.: +44 1223 393 753 | Email: mail@intersentia.co.uk

ISBN 978-1-78068-133-7
D/2012/7849/80
NUR 822

© 2012 Intersentia
Cambridge – Antwerp – Portland
www.intersentia.com | www.intersentia.co.uk

Cover photograph © Everett Collection-shutterstock

British Library Cataloguing in Publication Data. A catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library.

No part of this book may be reproduced in any form, by print, photo copy, microfilm or any other means, without written permission from the author.
TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Authors................................................................................................................ ....xv
List of Abbreviations ............................................................................................................xvii

INTRODUCTION

The Pursuit of Truth in Contemporary Civil Procedure: Revival of Accuracy or a New Balance in Favour of Effectiveness? ............................................................... 3
C.H. van Rhee & A. Uzelac
Bibliography ................................................................................................................... .... 10

TRENDS AND CHALLENGES IN WESTERN EUROPE: THE NETHERLANDS, ITALY

R.R. Verkerk
1. Introduction: The Ordinary Course of Litigation ........................................... 13
2. The Ordinary Structure of Litigation in the Netherlands ...................... 13
3. Fewer Judicial Orders to Produce Evidence .............................................. 15
4. Demise of the Traditional Presentation of Evidence: An Explanation....... 16
  4.1. The New Middle Phase in the Structure of Litigation: Frontloading .... 17
  4.2. The Organisation of the Judiciary: Financing the Courts ................... 19
  4.3. The Likely Causes of the Decline of the Traditional Presentation of Evidence ................................................................. 20
5. The Demise of the Traditional Presentation of Evidence: An Appraisal .... 22
Bibliography ................................................................................................................... .... 24
Table of Contents

The Relevance of Truth: The Case of Mediation versus Litigation .......................... 27
A. de Roo & R. Jagtenberg

1. Introduction ......................................................................................................... 27
2. Truth, Facts and Information ............................................................................. 28
3. Dispute Resolution Strategies: From Flight to Fight ....................................... 30
4. Control over the Use of Facts: Litigation and Mediation Compared ........... 32
   4.1. The BRICK and ROOF Case............................................................................... 32
   4.2. The Role of Facts in View of the Aims of Litigation and Mediation ......... 34
   4.3. The Relevance of Legal Traditions ................................................................ 35
   4.4. The Relevance of Domains .......................................................................... 36
5. (Non-)disclosure – Obligations, Penalties ........................................................ 37
6. Excluded Facts, Prescribed Fictions .................................................................. 39
7. Perceptions of Truth and Corrective Mechanisms........................................... 40
8. Truth and the Financing of Litigation and Mediation.................................... 42
9. Concluding Observations ................................................................................... 43

Bibliography ............................................................................................................... .... 44

The Antique Shop of Italian Civil procedure: Oath and Confession as Evidence .............................................................................................................................. 47
E. Silvestri

1. Introduction ......................................................................................................... 47
2. Italian Law of Evidence in a Nutshell............................................................... 48
3. The Confession and the Party Oath .................................................................. 50
4. Final Remarks ...................................................................................................... 53

Bibliography ............................................................................................................... .... 55

The Judgment on Facts in Italian Summary Proceedings ........................................ 59
E. Ferrari

1. Introduction: The Judgment on Facts ............................................................... 59
2. The Heterogeneous Category of Summary Proceedings and the Different ... 60
   Meanings of Summariness ............................................................................... 60
3. The Introduction of Summary Proceedings on the Merits ex-Article 702-bis and Following of the Code of Civil Procedure ........................................... 63
4. Systematic Position and Juridical Nature......................................................... 65
5. The Summariness of the Evidence-taking Phase: The quid and quomodo of this Phase of the Proceedings............................................................... 67
6. Final Remarks ...................................................................................................... 73

Bibliography ............................................................................................................... .... 75

vi
Table of Contents

Expert Testimony in the Italian Judicial System: Characteristics, Questions and Comparative Views

F. Ferraris

1. Introduction ......................................................................................................... 81
2. Technical Testimony as a Hybrid between Witness Testimony and Technical Advice ................................................................. 82
3. Case Law on Technical Testimony ................................................................. 83
4. The Dispute among Italian Academics on Technical Testimony .......... 85
5. A Comparison between Technical Testimony and Technical Advice .......... 87
6. A Comparative View: The Introduction of Expert Knowledge in the American and English Legal Systems .............................................................. 87
7. Conclusion............................................................................................................ 92

Bibliography ................................................................................................................... 93

Inspection by the Court as a Means of Evidence in Italy and The notorium facti permanentis: A Balance between Efficiency and Due Process of Law

M. Bina

1. Introduction .......................................................................................................... 97
2. Articles 115 and 118 of the Italian Code of Civil Procedure........................... 98
3. The Meaning of Party Presentation According to Article 115 CCP.............. 99
4. The Court’s Power to Order an Inspection..................................................... 101
5. Court Inspection and Respect for Procedural Fairness................................. 104
6. Conclusions: Court Inspection and Due Process of Law.............................. 106

Bibliography ................................................................................................................... 107

COMMON LAW PERSPECTIVE: USA, SOUTH AFRICA

The Demise of Trial in American Civil Procedure: How It Happened, Is It Convergence with European Civil Procedure?

J.H. Langbein

1. Introduction ........................................................................................................ 119
2. Common Law Civil Trial: Origins and Attributes......................................... 122
2.1. The Shaping Role of the Jury System .............................................................. 122
3. Equity: Non-trial and Nonjury Civil Procedure ............................................ 129
4. The Federal Rules: The Pre-trial Becomes the Non-trial............................... 131
4.1. The Flight from Pleading .............................................................................. 132
4.2. Party-Conducted Discovery: Overcoming the Investigation Deficit .......... 132
4.3. Judicial Case-Management ........................................................................... 138
4.4. Summary Judgment....................................................................................... 144
4.5. Why Civil Trial Vanished ........................................................................... 145
5. Convergence? ..................................................................................................... 148

Bibliography ................................................................................................................... 150
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Extremism in the Pursuit of Truth is our ‘Virtue’: The American Infatuation with Broad Discovery</th>
<th>165</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>R.L. Marcus</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. The Promise</td>
<td>167</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Caricature</td>
<td>169</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Reality</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. The Alternative</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. The Future</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Conclusion</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fact- and Truth-Finding in South African Civil Procedure</th>
<th>189</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>M. Paleker</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Introduction</td>
<td>189</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Role of the Judge</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. The Role of Pleadings</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Discovery</td>
<td>203</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Medical Examinations and Technical Inspections</td>
<td>217</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Special Evidence</td>
<td>219</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7. Request for Further Particulars for the Purposes of Trial</td>
<td>220</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Pre-trial Conferences</td>
<td>221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. The Holy Grail: The Adduction of Evidence at Trial</td>
<td>221</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. Conclusion</td>
<td>223</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bibliography</td>
<td>225</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SOCIALIST AND POST-SOCIALIST PERSPECTIVES: CHINA, ROMANIA, SLOVENIA, RUSSIA</th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Efficiency and Truth in Civil Fact-finding: The Evolving Role of the Judge in Mainland China and Hong Kong and the Effect of the Policy Preference for Court Mediation on Fact-finding in the People’s Courts</td>
<td>231</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>P.C.H. Chan</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1. Introduction</td>
<td>231</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.1. Efficiency and Fact-finding: Two Jurisdictions, Different Approaches</td>
<td>231</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.2. The Policy Preference for Court Mediation in China: A Cause for Concern</td>
<td>232</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Evolving Role of the Judge in Civil Fact-Finding – Mainland China and Hong Kong</td>
<td>233</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1. The Evolving Role of the Judge in Civil Fact-Finding: Mainland China</td>
<td>233</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.1. Background</td>
<td>233</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2. Evidence Collection: Party Responsibility System and Judicial Intervention</td>
<td>234</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Table of Contents

2.1.3. Civil Burdens of Proof – A Big Step Forward? .................................................. 237
2.1.4. The Paradox of Party Responsibility in the Absence of the Principle of Party Presentation ................................................................. 238
2.1.5. Judicial Clarifications in Chinese Civil Fact-finding ........................................ 241
2.1.6. Evidence Exchange and Management with Efficiency in Mind .................. 241
2.2. The Evolving Role of the Judge in Civil Fact-Finding: Hong Kong ............. 243
2.2.1. Underlying Objectives and the Surge of Judicial Power in Fact-finding ... 243
2.2.2. Statement of Truth and Restrictions on Amendment of Pleadings .......... 244
2.2.3. Efficiency in Discovery .............................................................................. 246
2.2.4. Amplification of Witness Statements .......................................................... 248
2.2.5. Appeals from Certain Decisions of Masters to a Judge in Chambers ...... 249
2.2.6. Practice Direction 5.2 and the Listing Questionnaire .............................. 249
3. The Policy of Giving Priority to Court Mediation: A Roadblock to Fairness in Civil Fact-finding in the People’s Courts (in Mainland China) ................................................................. 249
3.2. The Chinese Concept of Mediation: The Traditional Legal Culture at Work ........................................................................................................... 252
3.3. Court Mediation in China: A Critical Appraisal ........................................... 252
3.4. The Onslaught of Judicial Conciliation on Fact-finding ............................... 254
4. Conclusion .......................................................................................................... 255

---

Rules of Evidence in Romanian Civil Procedure and Their Impact on Truth and Efficiency ................................................................. 261
S. Spinei

1. Interrelations ....................................................................................................... 261
2. Current Developments ...................................................................................... 261
3. Romanian Experience ....................................................................................... 262
3.1. Principle of Truth ............................................................................................ 262
3.2. Efficiency ....................................................................................................... 263
3.2.2. Socialist and Early ‘Transition’ Period ......................................................... 265
3.2.3. Ordinance No. 138/2000 .......................................................................... 265
3.2.3.1. Written Phase of the Lawsuit .................................................................. 265
3.2.3.2. Taking of Evidence by Lawyers ............................................................... 266
3.2.3.3. Other Legal Rules .................................................................................... 267
3.3. The Principle of the Active Role of the Judge ................................................ 267
3.4. Adversarial Principle ..................................................................................... 269
3.5. Means of Evidence ........................................................................................ 271
3.6. Efficiency-oriented Evidentiary Rules .......................................................... 272
3.6.1. Pre-action Rules ......................................................................................... 272
3.6.2. Pending Litigation Rules .......................................................................... 273
3.7. Means of Evidence and Incidents Susceptible to Cause Delay ................. 274
Efficiency versus Fairness in Civil Procedure in Slovenia

V. Rijavec

1. Introduction ........................................................................................................ 283
2. Efficiency and Fair Trial .................................................................................... 285
2.1. General ................................................................................................................ 285
2.2. Measures to Accelerate Procedure ................................................................. 286
2.3. General Principles of Procedure ...................................................................... 286
2.3.1. Limitation of Ius Novorum ................................................................................. 287
2.3.2. Fact-finding Methods ........................................................................................ 288
2.3.3. Principle of Free Evaluation of Evidence ........................................................ 288
2.3.4. Iura Novit Curia................................................................................................. 289
2.4. Rendering Decisions .......................................................................................... 289
2.4.1. General ................................................................................................................ 289
2.4.2. Default Judgments ............................................................................................. 289
2.4.2.1. Mandatory Written Answer ............................................................................. 289
2.4.2.2. Requirements for Validity of the Default Judgment ..................................... 290
2.4.2.3. Legal Nature of the Default Judgment............................................................ 291
2.4.2.4. Claimant’s Request ........................................................................................ 291
2.4.2.5. Legal Remedies against the Default Judgment .............................................. 292
2.4.3. Default Judgment Dismissing a Claim............................................................. 292
2.4.4. Judgment on the Basis of Abandoning the Claim ......................................... 292
2.4.5. Judgment on the Basis of Acknowledgment .................................................. 292
2.5. Judgment on the Basis of Substantial Adjudication of the Claim................ 293
2.5.1. Final Judgment ................................................................................................... 293
2.5.2. Partial Judgment ................................................................................................ 293
2.5.3. Interlocutory Judgment ..................................................................................... 293
2.6. Effects of Judgments ......................................................................................... 293
2.7. Court Settlement ................................................................................................ 294
2.8. Ordinary Legal Remedies ............................................................................... 294
2.8.1. Appeal ................................................................................................................ 294
2.8.2. Grounds of Appeal ............................................................................................ 294
2.9. Extraordinary Legal Remedies ........................................................................ 294
2.9.1. Revision ............................................................................................................... 294
2.9.2. Petition for Protection of Legality................................................................. 295
2.10. Re-opening of Proceedings ............................................................................... 295
2.11. Action for Annulment of a Court Settlement or Action for Annulment of an Arbitration Award ................................................................. 296
3. Special Procedures ............................................................................................. 296
4. Conclusion .......................................................................................................... 296
Bibliography ................................................................................................................... 298
Table of Contents

The Jurisdiction of Russian Courts in Civil Matters

D.Kh. Valeev, L.V. Fatkhullina & A. Valeeva

1. Constitutional Foundations of the Court System ........................................... 301
2. The Jurisdiction of Russian Courts .............................................................. 302
3. Jurisdiction in Labour Disputes .................................................................... 303
4. Jurisdiction in Family Cases ......................................................................... 305
5. Payment Orders ............................................................................................ 306
6. Public Law Cases ......................................................................................... 306
7. Special (extra-contentious) Proceedings ....................................................... 307
8. Cases Involving Foreigners, Foreign States and International Organisations .................................................. 308
9. Jurisdiction of Commercial Courts ............................................................. 308
10. Resolving Conflicts of Jurisdiction ............................................................ 312

Truth and Efficiency in Russian Civil Procedure

V. Abolonin & G. Abolonin

1. Introduction .................................................................................................. 313
2. Objective Truth and Formal Truth - The Theoretical Dualism of Russian Civil Procedure .................................................. 313
3. The Modern Doctrine of Civil Procedure and the Concept of Truth .......... 315
4. Russian Law of Evidence .............................................................................. 318
   4.1. Burden of Proof ...................................................................................... 318
   4.2. Collection and Adduction of Evidence .................................................. 318
   4.3. Evaluation of Evidence by the Court ....................................................... 319
   4.4. The Role of the Court with Respect to Taking Evidence and the Truth .... 320
5. The Russian Judicial System – Efficient and Advanced .............................. 321
6. Conclusion .................................................................................................. 324

Bibliography

326

TRANSNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE: TRUTH-FINDING AT INTERNATIONAL TRIBUNALS

Taking and Administering Evidence beyond the State - Some Reflections on Procedural Issues before the Court of Justice of the European Union

J. Sladić

1. Introduction .................................................................................................. 331
2. Lack of National and European Rules on the Gathering of Facts, Evidence and Information .................................................. 333
3. Principle of Unfettered Adduction and Evaluation of Evidence .................. 338
4. Principle Actori Incumbit Probatio and Exceptions .................................. 340
5. Principle under which the Parties Delimit the Scope of Proceedings (le principe dispositif) and the Principle of Official Inquiry (Untersuchungsgrundsatz, le principe inquisitoire) .................................................. 342
Table of Contents

6. Active Role of the European Judge: Measures of Organisation of Procedure or Measures of Inquiry ................................................................. 344
   6.1. Measures of Inquiry ..................................................................................................................... 345
   6.2. Measures of Organisation of Procedure .................................................................................. 346
   6.3. Principle of the Concentration of Pleas in Law and Facts Alleged (Konzentrationsmaxime) ........................................................................ 349
   6.4. Expedited Proceedings on the Merits of the Case .................................................................. 350
7. Conclusion ........................................................................................................................................ 350
Bibliography ........................................................................................................................................... 352

PURSUIT OF TRUTH AND THE HISTORY OF CIVIL PROCEDURE: ROMAN LAW PERSPECTIVE

The Pursuit of Truth and Efficiency in Roman Arbitration Proceedings .......... 359
I. Milotić

1. Introduction ................................................................................................................ 359
2. The Arbiter’s Role in the Pursuit of Truth ................................................................. 360
3. Concentrated Proceedings and Immediacy .............................................................. 361
4. Orality and Hearings ............................................................................................. 363
5. Exclusion of Publicity ............................................................................................ 364
6. Importance of Language ....................................................................................... 365
7. Constraints on the Pursuit of Truth ....................................................................... 366
8. Role of the Public Authorities ................................................................................ 370
9. Conclusion .............................................................................................................. 370
Bibliography ...................................................................................................................... 371

Propter celeritatem dirimendarum litium – Presumptions and Stipulatio in Roman Law ....................................................................................................................... 375
T. Karlović

1. Generally on Presumptions in Roman Law ............................................................. 375
2. Stipulatio and the ‘Stipulation Clause’ ................................................................. 377
3. ‘Defective’ cautiones in Late Classical Law ............................................................ 379
4. Justinian and the Presumption from instrumentum .............................................. 380
5. Conclusion ................................................................................................................ 382
Bibliography ...................................................................................................................... 384
EXPERIMENTAL APPROACH TO TRUTH-FINDING

Immediate Judgments in Civil Proceedings in the Netherlands – An Experiment ................................................................. 391

1. Introduction ....................................................................................................................... 391
2. Production of Cantonal Judgments in the Netherlands ............................................. 392
3. Outline of the Alternative Approach .......................................................................... 395
4. Simulation of Immediate Post-Hearing Adjudication ........................................... 397
5. Concluding Remarks ..................................................................................................... 399
Bibliography .......................................................................................................................... 400
LIST OF AUTHORS

G. Abolonin, PhD (Russia), Head of Legal Department for Russia, Linx Telecommunications CIS (Moscow), Russian Federation

V. Abolonin, PhD (Russia), LL.M. (Hanover/Lisbon), Associate Professor, Urals State Law Academy (Yekaterinburg), Russian Federation

M. Bina, Postdoctoral Researcher in civil procedural law, Milan University, Italy

R. Bloemink, Student, Utrecht University, The Netherlands

P.C.H. Chan, Teaching Fellow, City University of Hong Kong, People’s Republic of China

S.P.W. van Dooren, Student, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

L.I.M. Entjes, Student, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

L.V. Fatkhullina, PhD student, Kazan (Volga Region) Federal University (Kazan), Russian Federation

F. Fernhout, Associate Professor of Civil Procedure, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

F. Ferrari, Aggregate Professor of Civil Procedure, Insubria University (Como-Varese), Italy

F. Ferraris, PhD (Milan), Research fellow in civil procedural law, University of Milan-Bicocca, Italy

S.A.H. van Gompel, Student, Maastricht University, The Netherlands
List of Authors

R. Jagtenberg, Associate Professor of Law, Erasmus University (Rotterdam), The Netherlands

T. Karlović, Assistant Professor of Roman Law, Zagreb University, Croatia

J.H. Langbein, Sterling Professor of Law & Legal History, Yale Law School (New Haven), USA

R.L. Marcus, Coil Chair in Litigation, University of California, Hastings College of the Law, USA; Associate Reporter, Advisory Committee on Civil Rules, Judicial Conference of the USA

I. Milotić, Research Assistant, Zagreb University, Croatia

M. Paleker, Associate Professor, Department of Private Law, University of Cape Town, South Africa

C.H. van Rhee, Professor of European Legal History and Comparative Civil Procedure, Maastricht University, The Netherlands

V. Rijavec, Head of the Institute for Civil, Comparative and International Private Law, University of Maribor, Slovenia

A. de Roo, Associate Professor of Law, Erasmus University (Rotterdam), The Netherlands

E. Silvestri, Associate Professor of Comparative Civil Procedure, University of Pavia, Italy

J. Sladič, Sladič Law Firm (Ljubljana), Slovenia, Associate Professor of International and European Law, University of Maribor, Slovenia

S. Spinei, Associate Professor of Law, University of Sibiu, Romania

A. Uzelac, Professor of Civil Procedure, Zagreb University, Croatia

D.Kh. Valeev, Professor of Civil Procedure, Kazan (Volga Region) Federal University (Kazan), Russian Federation

A. Valeeva, PhD student, Kazan (Volga Region) Federal University (Kazan), Russian Federation

R.R. Verkerk, Lawyer at Houthoff Buruma (Rotterdam), The Netherlands

xvi
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Abbreviation</th>
<th>Full Form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>AD</td>
<td>Anno Domini</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ADR</td>
<td>Alternative Dispute Resolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ALI/UNIDROIT</td>
<td>American Law Institute/Institut International pour l'Unification du Droit Privé</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Art.</td>
<td>Article</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BATNA</td>
<td>Best Alternative To a Negotiated Agreement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CCP</td>
<td>Code of Civil Procedure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CFI</td>
<td>Court of First Instance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CJEU</td>
<td>Court of Justice of the European Union</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CJR</td>
<td>Civil Justice Reform</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CPC</td>
<td>Commercial Procedure Code</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CPR</td>
<td>Civil Procedure Rules</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DNA</td>
<td>Deoxyribonucleic Acid</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ECJ</td>
<td>European Court of Justice</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EU</td>
<td>European Union</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FCL</td>
<td>Federal Constitutional Law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FRCP</td>
<td>Federal Rules of Civil Procedure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GKP</td>
<td>State Committee for Anti-Monopoly Policy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GPS</td>
<td>Global Positioning System</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LEC</td>
<td>Ley de Enjuiciamiento Civil</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MCR</td>
<td>Magistrates Courts Rules</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NCP</td>
<td>New Code of Civil Procedure</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NPCSC</td>
<td>National People's Congress Standing Committee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OJ</td>
<td>Official Journal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PAIA</td>
<td>Promotion of Access to Information Act</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RHC</td>
<td>Rules of the High Court</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RSFSR</td>
<td>Russian Soviet Federative Socialist Republic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RUB</td>
<td>Ruble</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SPC</td>
<td>Supreme People's Court</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stb.</td>
<td>Staatsblad (Dutch Official Journal)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TEU</td>
<td>Treaty on European Union</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TFEU</td>
<td>Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UMA</td>
<td>Uniform Mediation Act</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
List of Abbreviations

URC  Uniform Rules of Court
US   United States
USA  United States of America
ZPO  Zivilprozessordnung
ZPP  Zakon o pravdnem postopku (Civil Procedure Act)