The European Union and National Civil Procedure
The European Union and National Civil Procedure
CONTENTS

About the Authors ................................................................. ix
List of Abbreviations .............................................................. xi

The European Union and National Civil Procedure – A Rocky Road or a Smooth Process?
Anna Nylund and Bart Krans ...................................................... 1

Some European Challenges for Belgian Civil Procedure
Piet Taelman ................................................................. 5
1. The Invisible Pillar Raises Serious Compatibility Issues between EU (Case) Law and Belgian Civil Procedure Law ................................................................. 5
2. A New Legal Instrument Inspired by European Legislation does not seem to be in Sync with its European Counterparts ...................................................... 11
3. To Conclude ................................................................. 15

Danish Civil Procedure and the Internal Market: Impact and Challenges of Sectoral Harmonisation
Clement Salung Petersen ......................................................... 17
1. Introduction ................................................................. 17
2. Sectoral Harmonisation and Danish Civil Procedure Law: Impact ............. 18
   2.1. Disclosure of Evidence .................................................. 19
   2.2. Measures for Preserving Evidence .................................. 20
   2.3. Right to Information .................................................... 22
   2.4. Legal Costs ............................................................... 23
   2.5. Interpretation of Civil Procedure Rules ............................ 24
   2.6. Civil and Criminal Procedure Law ................................ 25
   2.7. Conclusion ............................................................... 26
2. Sectoral Harmonisation and Danish Civil Procedure Law: Challenges .......... 26
3. Danish Civil Procedure and the Internal Market .................................. 27
4. Concluding Remarks ........................................................... 29
European Influences upon English Civil Justice: Tempests or Gentle Breezes?
Neil Andrews ................................................................. 31
1. Introduction .............................................................. 31
2. European Statutory Changes to English Civil Procedure ................. 31
3. The EU Ban on Anti-suit Injunctions Concerning Litigation Conducted before Member States ........................................... 33
4. European Account Preservation Order .................................. 35
5. Cross-Border Mediation within the EU ................................... 35
8. Other Tentacles of European Human Rights Law ......................... 42
9. Concluding Remarks .................................................... 45

European Union and National Civil Procedure: The French Paradox
Isabelle Després ............................................................. 47
1. Introduction .............................................................. 47
2. The Private International Law Approach ................................ 49
3. The Consumer Law Approach ......................................... 52
4. The Approach Through Civil Procedure Itself .......................... 55
5. Conclusion ............................................................... 58

The European Union and Civil Procedure from a German Perspective
Wolfgang Hau .................................................................. 59
1. Background ............................................................... 59
2. EU Law and Civil Procedure: Cross-border Cases ....................... 62
   2.1. EU Primary Law .................................................... 62
   2.2. EU Secondary Law ................................................ 62
       2.2.1. Overview ..................................................... 62
       2.2.2. German Reactions ......................................... 64
3. EU Law and Civil Procedure: Domestic Cases ......................... 65
   3.1. European Procedural Standards .................................. 65
   3.2. EU Law as Model for National Rules ............................. 68
4. Outlook ..................................................................... 70

Interaction between European Law and Hungarian Civil Procedure Law
Viktória Harsági ............................................................... 73
1. Introduction ............................................................... 73
2. Directions of the Research ............................................... 75
3. Court Structure ........................................................... 76
4. The Impact of the Norms of European Civil Procedure Law on Hungarian Legislation ......................................................... 77
   4.1. General Remarks ................................................... 77
   4.2. Regulation Brussels I (Old and New) and Brussels IIa ............ 78
4.3. European Enforcement Order ................................................. 79
4.4. Matters Relating to Maintenance or Succession ..................... 80
4.5. Legal Assistance (Service of Documents, Taking of Evidence) .... 80
4.6. The European Order for Payment Procedure and the European Small
     Claims Procedure .......................................................... 82
4.7. Legal Aid ........................................................................ 83
4.8. Mediation ........................................................................ 84
5. Case Law ................................................................. 85
5.1. Hungarian Case Law Relating to European Civil Procedure Law .... 85
5.2. The Impact of the Case Law of the Court of Justice of the European Union on Hungarian Legislation and the Application of Law ........... 85
6. Main Tasks to be Carried out during the Codification of the New Code of Civil Procedure ................................................................. 88

The Impact of EU Law on Dutch Civil Procedure Law
Bart Krans ........................................................................... 89
1. A Growing Interplay ............................................................. 89
2. New Questions about a Long-running Subject .......................... 91
3. New Rules .......................................................................... 92
    3.1. Some Examples ............................................................ 93
    3.2. New Rules with Impact .................................................. 95
    3.3. New Rules with Lesser Impact ....................................... 97
    3.4. New Rules: Always at Least Some Impact ...................... 97
4. Spontaneous Harmonisation ................................................ 98
5. Conclusions ....................................................................... 100

Norway: An Insider Outside – or an Outsider Inside – European Civil Justice
Anna Nylund ........................................................................ 101
1. The EU, the EEA Agreement and Norwegian Law .................... 101
2. The Lugano Convention ...................................................... 103
3. Impact of EEA Law on Norwegian Civil Procedure .................. 106
4. The Norwegian Supreme Court and the EFTA Court: A Turf War or Dialogue? ....................................................................... 109
    4.1. Advisory Opinions .......................................................... 109
    4.2. The Nature of the EEA Agreement – Dynamic or Static? .... 112
5. Consequences of a Janus-faced Approach to the EU and EEA .......... 114

Polish Civil Proceedings: How Much Europeanised?
Anna Piszcz ................................................................. 115
1. Introductory Ideas .............................................................. 115
2. EU Europeanisation through 'Soft' Measures ........................... 116
3. EU Europeanisation through 'Hard' Measures .......................... 120
4. Judicial EU Europeanisation ................................................ 124
5. Concluding Remarks ........................................................ 128
Slovenian Civil Procedure and the Transformative Power of the EU
Aleš Galič ........................................................................................................ 131
1. Introduction .................................................................................. 131
2. European Civil Procedure and Changes in National Legislation .... 132
   2.1. The ‘Minimalistic Approach’ ....................................................... 132
   2.2. Cross Border Regulations as a ‘Model Law’ for National Legislation? . 132
   2.3. Effects of the CJEU’s Understanding of Indirect Discrimination . 134
3. European Civil Procedure and Changes in National Case Law ....... 135
   3.1. General Considerations .......................................................... 135
   3.2. Fictitious Domestic Service instead of Service Abroad ........... 136
4. European Civil Procedure beyond the Judicial Co-operation in Civil Matters:
   Disclosure of Evidence in the Antitrust Damages Directive .......... 139
5. The Right to have a Matter Submitted to the CJEU for a Preliminary Ruling as a Part of the Guarantee of Access to a Court, Established by Law ... 141
6. The Impact of the European Civil Procedure on the Legal Method and Mentality of National Judges ..................................................... 142

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time: Europeanisation of Civil Procedure in Sweden
Anna Wallerman .................................................................................. 147
1. Introduction .................................................................................. 147
2. EU-induced Legal Developments .................................................... 148
3. ‘There Appears to Be No Need for Special Rules’ ......................... 151
4. Swedish References for Preliminary Rulings ............................... 152
5. Ex Officio Powers of the Courts ...................................................... 155
7. Of Barking and Biting .................................................................... 159

Conclusions and Outlook
Bart Krans and Anna Nylund ............................................................... 161
1. Impact, in Various Ways ................................................................. 161
2. General Conclusions from the Papers .......................................... 161
3. Differences between Member States ............................................. 163
4. Level of Knowledge and Understanding of EU Law amongst Judges .. 165
5. Attitudes towards Europeanisation ............................................... 166
6. Methods of Implementation ......................................................... 167
7. Enforcement, Coherence and Fragmentation ............................... 168
8. Outlooks ....................................................................................... 169

Index .................................................................................................... 171
ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Neil Andrews is professor of Civil Justice and Private Law, University of Cambridge. His works include Andrews on Civil Processes (2 volumes, Intersentia, Cambridge, 2013; Contract Law (2nd edn, Cambridge University Press, 2015). Nha1000@cam.ac.uk

Isabelle Després is a full professor at the University of Nantes. She studied in Saarbrücken and Strasbourg, where she defended her thesis on French pre-trial discovery. She specializes in civil procedure and edited the French civil procedure code commentaries for Dalloz for 10 years. Isabelle.despres@univ-nantes.fr

Aleš Galič is a professor of civil procedure, private international law and arbitration at the University of Ljubljana, Faculty of Law, Slovenia. He is also a senior legal advisor to the Slovenian Constitutional Court. Ales.galic@pf.uni-lj.si

Viktória Harsági is professor and Head of Department at Pázmány Péter Catholic University Faculty of Law, Department of Civil Procedure Law in Budapest, and lecturer at the Andrássy Gyula German Speaking University in Budapest. Harsagi.viktoria@jak.ppke.hu

Wolfgang Hau, Dr., is a full professor at the University of Passau (chair for private law, civil procedure, and private international law) and part-time judge at the Higher Regional Court of Munich. hau@uni-passau.de

Bart Krans is a full professor at the University of Leiden (chair for Private Law and Civil Procedure Law). Among his publications are books on the influence of EU law on Dutch civil procedure law, on the law of evidence and on the law of obligations. He is a member of several editorial boards in his fields. Previously he was a full professor at the University of Groningen. h.b.krans@law.leidenuniv.nl

Anna Nylund is professor at University of Tromsø – the Arctic University of Norway. Her teaching and research includes issues in national and comparative civil procedure, and issues in alternative dispute resolution, with emphasis on mediation. She studied law at the University of Helsinki and defended her doctoral thesis on access to second courts there. She is a member of several international scholarly associations in her fields. Anna.nylund@uit.no
About the Authors

Clement Salung Petersen (PH.D., LL.M.) is an Associate Professor at the University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Law. His main areas of research are civil procedure and enforcement of intellectual property rights. Clement.petersen@jur.ku.dk

Anna Piszcz Dr. Hab., is professor at the University of Białystok (Poland), Faculty of Law, Temporary on Duty of Chairman of the Department of Public Economic Law; member of the Advisory Board to the President of the Office for Competition and Consumer Protection. piszcz@uwb.edu.pl

Piet Taelman is a senior full professor at Ghent University Law School (Belgium). He teaches courses on Civil Procedure and has written on a wide variety of topics on civil procedural law in national and international journals and book chapters. He has been admitted to the Ghent Bar in 1982 and has practised as a lawyer and arbitrator during almost the whole of his academic career. Piet Taelman served as dean of the Ghent Law School from October 2008 till September 2014. Piet.taelman@ugent.be

Anna Wallerman received her LL.D. degree in 2015 from the University of Gothenburg, where she is currently an associate senior lecturer. She has previously been a visiting scholar at the universities of Oxford and Zürich. Her research interests are civil procedure and EU law. Anna.wallerman@law.gu.se
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

ADR       Alternative Dispute Resolution
APC       Polish Act on the Pursuit of Claims in Group Proceedings
BGBl      Bundesgesetzblatt
CJEU      Court of Justice of the European Union
CJP       Code of Judicial Procedure (Sweden)
CJQ       Civil Justice Quarterly
CMLR      Common Market Law Review
CPA       Civil Procedure Act (Slovenia)
CPC       Civil Procedure Code (Netherlands), (Poland)
DG        Directorate General
EC        European Community
EC-Treaty Treaty Establishing the European Community
ECHR      European Convention on Human Rights
ECJ       European Court of Justice
ECHR       European Court of Human Rights
ECR       European Court Reports
EEA       European Economic Area
EEC       European Economic Community
EFTA      European Free Trade Association
ERPL      European Review of Private Law
ERT       Europarättslig tidsskrift
EU        European Union
EUCFR     European Union Charter of Fundamental Rights
EuZW      Europäische Zeitschrift für Wirtschaftsrecht
GPR       GPR – Zeitschrift für das Privatrecht der Europäischen Union
HCCP      Hungaria Code of Civil Procedure
IIC       International Review of Intellectual Property and Competition Law
IP        Intellectual Property
IPrax     Praxis des Internationalen Privat- und Verfahrensrechts
JT        Juridisk tidsskrift
JZ        JuristenZeitung
LGDJ      Librairie générale de droit et de jurisprudence
NIR       Nordiskt immateriellt rättsskydd
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Abbreviation</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NIA</td>
<td>Nytt juridiskt arkiv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NJW</td>
<td>Neue Juristische Wochenschrift</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ODR</td>
<td>Online Dispute Resolution</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OJ</td>
<td>Official Journal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>OSP</td>
<td>Orzecznictwo Sądów Polskich</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PIL</td>
<td>Private International Law</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rt.</td>
<td>Retstidende</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RÅ</td>
<td>Regeringsrättens årsbok</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TFEU</td>
<td>Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TRIPS</td>
<td>The Agreement on Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WTO</td>
<td>World Trade Organisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ZEuP</td>
<td>Zeitschrift für Europäisches Privatrecht</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ZPO</td>
<td>Zivilprozessordnung (German Code of Civil Procedure)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ZZP</td>
<td>Zeitschrift für Zivilprozess</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>