CONSUMER PROTECTION IN A CIRCULAR ECONOMY

Bert Keirsbilck
Evelyne Terryn
(eds.)
Consumer Protection in a Circular Economy
© Bert Keirsbilck and Evelyne Terryn (eds.)

The author has asserted the right under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, to be identified as author of this work.

No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form, or by any means, without prior written permission from Intersentia, or as expressly permitted by law or under the terms agreed with the appropriate reprographic rights organisation. Enquiries concerning reproduction which may not be covered by the above should be addressed to Intersentia at the address above.

ISBN 978-1-78068-657-8
ISBN 978-1-78068-858-9 (pdf)
D/2019/7849/64
NUR 827

PART I.
SETTING THE SCENE .......................................................... 1

The Circular Economy Action Plan: An Agenda for Change!
Hugo Maria Schally .............................................................. 3

Consumer Protection in the Circular Economy in Europe – Legal Initiatives and Challenges – The Commission’s View
Renatas Mazeika ............................................................... 11

Introduction ................................................................. 11
Legal Issues ................................................................. 13
New Deal for Consumers ................................................... 15

PART II.
INTERDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES ON A CIRCULAR ECONOMY . . . . 19

Technology for Circular Economy. A New Paradigm for the Way We Use Resources
Karel Van Acker ............................................................... 21

1. The techno-economic drivers for Circular Economy ............... 21
2. Technological strategies for Circular Economy ...................... 23
   2.1. Improve renewability ................................................. 25
   2.2. Dematerialize .......................................................... 25
   2.3. Substitute .............................................................. 26
3. Expected technological innovations for the Circular Economy .... 27
4. Technological hurdles within the Circular Economy ............. 28
5. Concluding remarks ...................................................... 30
References ................................................................. 31

Circular Economy, An Economist’s Perspective
Johan Eyckmans .............................................................. 33

1. Introduction: from a linear towards a more Circular Economy .... 33
2. Why intervene? ............................................................. 35
   2.1. A short digression on the economists’ methodology ............ 35

Intersentia
PART III.
LEGAL INITIATIVES AND CHALLENGES FOR CONSUMER PROTECTION IN A CIRCULAR ECONOMY

TITLE I.
EUROPEAN UNION

The Design and Production Stage: Ecodesign Requirements

Anaïs Michel

1. Ecodesign in the circular economy
   1.1. The key role of ecodesign in the Circular Economy
   1.2. The need of a multi-tiered ecodesign approach
   1.3. To regulate or not to regulate?

2. The Ecodesign Directive 2009/125/EC
   2.1. Objectives and legal basis of the Ecodesign Directive
   2.2. Scope of the Directive
   2.3. Key provision: Article 15
   2.4. Adoption procedure of implementing measures
   2.5. Compliance and the role of standardisation
   2.6. The place of self-regulation

3. Implementing measures supplementing the Ecodesign Directive
   3.1. Various products with a focus on energy efficiency requirements
   3.2. Other existing ecodesign requirements
   3.3. Recent initiatives from the European Commission
   3.4. Reactions to these initiatives

   4.1. Necessity of the Ecodesign rules
   4.2. Effectiveness of the Ecodesign rules

5. Conclusion
A Scandinavian Perspective on the Role of Consumers in the Circular Economy
Eléonore Maitre-Ekern and Carl Dalhammar . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 201

1. Introduction ........................................ 201
2. The Circular Economy objectives and the roles of consumers ....... 202
   2.1. Consumption in the CE ........................ 202
   2.2. What roles for consumers? .................... 203
   2.3. A hierarchy of consumer behaviour ............... 205
3. Sustainable consumption and the need for a policy mix .............. 206
   3.1. Introducing the European policy mix ................ 206
   3.2. The role of consumption in the policy mix .......... 209
4. The policy context in Sweden and Norway ........................ 210
   4.1. The EU as framework ........................... 210
   4.2. Sweden: pioneering for repair activities ......... 211
   4.3. Norway: waste management in focus ............... 212
5. Analysis of chosen policies and laws for sustainable consumption .. 214
   5.1. Consumers as maintainers and repairers ............. 214
      5.1.1. Consumer guarantee ........................ 215
      5.1.2. Re-use schemes ............................ 217
   5.2. Consumers as renters and sharers .................... 218
   5.3. Consumers as buyers ............................. 218
      5.3.1. Second-hand ................................ 218
      5.3.2. Qualitative consumption ....................... 220
   5.4. Consumers and waste sorting and recovery ............. 220
6. Conclusions ................................. 222

'Servitization' and Movables. Legal Initiatives and Challenges in Slovenia
Petra Weingerl and Janja Hojnik .................................. 225

1. Introduction: terminological and conceptual challenges ............ 225
2. Innovative business models in Slovenia .......................... 229
3. Initiatives and challenges posed by servitization in Slovenia ...... 232
   3.1 Initial reluctance of legal scholars ................. 232
   3.2 Initiative and challenges linked to the sharing economy
   business models ...................................... 233
   3.3 Initiatives and challenges in the field of digitalisation ... 236
   3.4 Non-legal challenges ................................ 237
   3.5 Initiatives and challenges linked to a Circular Economy .... 237
      3.5.1 Legal and policy initiatives at the governmental level .... 237
      3.5.2 Non-governmental initiatives .................... 238
4. Conclusion ........................................ 240
Belgian Property Law and the Circular Economy. Challenges and Opportunities for Real Estate

Benjamin Verheye

1. Introduction: towards future-proof property law
2. Circular Economy: the essentials
3. Property Law hindrances (?) to a Circular Economy for real estate
   3.1. Introduction: real estate in a Circular Economy and property law
   3.2. Real-life Circular Economy initiatives in the real estate sector
   3.3. Towards a more holistic approach?
   3.4. The notion ‘immovable’ in Belgian law: three categories
   3.5. Leasing incorporated building parts in a Circular Economy
      3.5.1. Accession to immovables
      3.5.2. Accession to immovables in a Circular Economy: a hindrance
      3.5.3. Alternative solutions to prevent accession to immovables
   3.6. Leasing of movables used in an immovable, without being incorporated
      3.6.1. Risks connected to leasing movables in a Circular Economy
      3.6.2. The rogue lessee
      3.6.3. Bankruptcy
      3.6.4. Privilege of the real estate lessor
4. Conclusion

German Property Law and the Circular Economy. Challenges and Opportunities for Real Estate

Klaus Tonner

1. Introduction
2. Addressees of CE related legal instruments
   2.1. From consumer to user
   2.2. From contract law to public law
3. Legal framework of the BGB
   3.1. No split of ownership – Property law
   3.2. Pay for use – elements of tenancy law
4. Recycling
5. Energy saving
   5.1. Thermal insulation
   5.2. Energy certification